Bernard B. Barber, Jr. Award For Excellence Application

WOODWORK INSTITUTE'S Bernard B. Barber, Jr. Award for Excellence honors design professionals for projects in which the interior or exterior architectural millwork is a predominant feature. All approved entries will be highlighted on WOODWORK INSTITUTE'S website and within its bi-annual magazine Archetype.

Applications may be submitted by any design professional or WOODWORK INSTITUTE Member that was contractually tied to the project; however, project specifications shall have required WOODWORK INSTITUTE Certified or Monitored Compliance.

Applications have no cut off date but must be received by May 31st to be considered for current year's awards selection. They should be sent to: Bernie B. Barber Jr. Award Program c/o WOODWORK INSTITUTE, P. O. Box 980247, West Sacramento, CA 95798.

Please include:

- ✓ A completed copy of this application, a copy of the project specifications, and two sets of at least six 8" x 10" glossy color photos, and a digital copy of the photos.
- ✓ An architect/designer's statement (including but not limited to):
 - ▶ The scope of the project in size, approximate cost, and time-frame from inception to completion.
 - ▶ The primary design considerations and objectives, and how they were realized or accomplished.
 - ▶ Any special problems or unusual aspects associated with the project.
 - ▶ A description of the architectural millwork, including material specifics, cut, finish, etc.
 - ▶ Please include any noteworthy millwork items or unique challenges that were overcome.
- ✓ A Woodworker's statement (including but not limited to):
 - ▶ The approximate number of man hours devoted to the project.
 - ▶ The design or technical assistance provided to the project.
 - ▶ Your opinion of the most challenging, interesting, or intricate aspects of the work.
